Graminex L.L.C. airs on Lifetime's The Balancing Act

April 22nd and May 6th 2010, Graminex® discusses the health benefits of Flower Pollen Extract™

Saginaw, Mich., March 15, 2010 -- Join Graminex LLC as they discuss the natural power of Graminex Flower Pollen Extract™ as a healthy supplement for men and women on The Balancing Act airing at 7am ET/PT on Lifetime Television Thursday, April 22nd and Thursday, May 6th 2010.

Rachel May, Director of Corporate Communications, from Graminex® and Dave Foreman, The Herbal Pharmacist® join The Balancing Act to discuss the health benefits of Graminex Flower Pollen Extract™.

Graminex Flower Pollen Extract™, an all-natural and non-allergenic health supplement, has been called the source of life because it contains all the nutrients required for regeneration. Dave and Rachel discuss Graminex Flower Pollen Extract™ as a natural health supplement that supports the alleviation of menopausal and prostate symptoms. These same nutrients found in Graminex Flower Pollen Extract™ are essential to protect, strengthen and rejuvenate the body both inside and out, providing a safe and effective health support mechanism.

About Graminex® - Graminex LLC, founded in 1997, is the world's leading supplier of standardized flower pollen extracts for use in nutritional supplements, function foods and beverages, pharmaceuticals, and cosmetics. As a cGMP certified facility, Graminex® revolutionized the safety, quality, and consistency of their product line in 2002 with a proprietary non-solvent extraction process. Graminex Flower Pollen Extract™ can be found in premium products world-wide. Graminex® serves supplement contract manufacturers by providing active ingredients for just in time deliveries. Call us with your formulation questions.

Graminex Flower Pollen Extract™ is available to retail consumers as PollenAid®, Prostanex®, Previa® and PolliQueen® through reputable online retailers as well as through Graminex's website.
